

allowing cell phone use on planes will disrupt service from flight attendants. also, can you imagine 100 or more passengers carrying on conversations at the same time? i can envision fights starting between passengers over volume, bad language ect.